Eva works in private barns, breeding centers, horse shows, and clinical practices.

She brings authenticity to her work which characterizes her professionalism.

In stressing the treatment of both horse and rider, Eva helps both partners become more efficient in their sport together. Most of her advanced bodywork has been taken from working with osteopaths at the Upledger Institute in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

Eva has done bodywork with riders:

Heather St. Clair Davis

Jane Savoie

Jim Koford

Denny Emerson

Betsy Steiner

Betsy Elizabeth Armstrong Powers

Sharon White

Anna Kjellstrom

Peter Gray

Bill Hoos

Fran Cross

Page Flournoy

Leslie Terry

Pam Goodrich

Tom Davis

Kay Slater

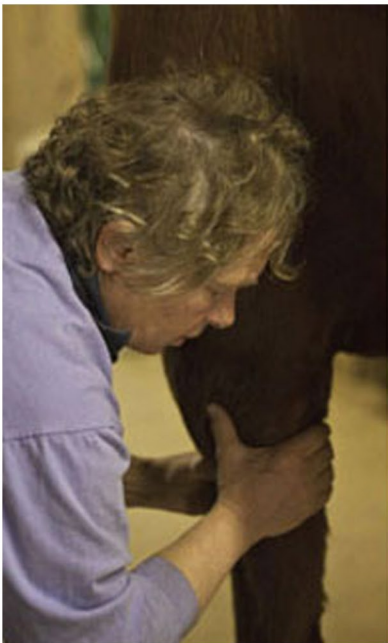

Eva's specialties are myofascial
bodywork, cranialsacral therapy,
visceral manipulation, neural

manipulation, deep tissue therapy, orthopedic massage, and sports
massage therapy.

By working fascial lines and the craniosacral rhythm, Eva helps to rebalance both horse and rider. She also works to release neural restrictions that inhibit muscular firing patterns thus restoring neural and fascial integrity for both joint and muscular wellness.
